[PUBLIC-No. 22.]

AN ACT to provide for the payment of outstanding Treascry notes, to authorize a loan, to regulate and fix the duties on imports,, and for other purposes

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Represedtatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be and hereby is authorized, at any time within twelve months from the passage of this act, to borrow, on the credit of the United States, a sum not exceeding ten millions of dollars, or so much thereof as, in his opinion, the exigences of the public service may aequire, to be applied to the payment of appropriations made by law, and the balance of Treasury notes now outstanding, and no other purposes, in addition to the money received, or which may be received into the Treasury from other sources: Procided, That no stipulation or contract shall be made to prevent the United States from reimbursing any sum borrowed under the authority of this act at any time after the expiration of two years from the first day of July next, by the United States giving three months' notice, to be published in some newspaper published at the seat of government, of ther readiness to do so; and no centract shall be made to prevent the redemption of the same at any time after the expiration of twenty years from the said first day of July next.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That stock shall be issued for the amount so borrowed, bearing interest not exthe Treasury be and is hereby authorized, with the consent of the President, to cause certificates of stock to be prepared, which shall be signed by the Register, and scaled with the seal of the Treasury Department, for the amount so borrowed, in favor of the parties lending the same, or their assigns, which certificates may be transferred on the books of the Treasury, under sech regulations as may be established by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided. That no certificate shall be issued for a less sum than one thousand dollars: And provided also, That, whenever required, the Secretary of the Treasury may cause coupons of semi-annual interest payable thereon to be attached to cer-tificates issued under this act; and any certificate with such coupons of interest attached may be assigned and transferred by delivery of the same, instead of being transferred on the books of the Treasury.

Sec. 3. And beit further enacted. That, before awarding any of said loan, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, as the exigencies of the public service require, cause to be inserted in two of the public newspapers of the city of Washington, and in one or more public newspapers in other cities of the United States, public notice that scaled proposals for so much of said loan as is required will be received until a certain day, to be specified in such notice, not less than thirty days from its first insertion in a Washington newspaper; and such notice shall state the amount of the loan, at what periods the money shall be paid, if by instalments, and at what places. Such sealed propor shall be opened on the day appointed in the notice, in the presence of such persons as may choose to attend, and the proposals decided by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall accept the most favorable offered by responsible bidders for said stock And the said Secretary shall report to Congress, at the commencement of the next session, the amount of money borrowed under this act, and of whom, and on what terms it shall have been obtained, with an ab-stract or brief statement of all the proposals submitted for the same, distinguishing between those accepted and those rejected, with a detailed statement of the expense of making such leans: Provided, That no stock shall be disposed of at less than its par value: And provided further, That no part of the loan hereby authorized shall be applied to the service of the present fiscal year, Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That in case the proposals made for said loan, or for so much thereof as the exigencies of the public service shall require, shall not be satisfactory, the President of the United States shall be, and hereby is, authorized to decline to accept such offer if for less than the par value of the bonds constituting the said stock, and in lieu thereof, and to the extent and amount of the loan authorized to be made by this act, to issue Treasury notes for sums not less than fifty dollars, bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semiannually on the first days of January and July in each year, at proper places of payment, to be prescribed by the Secre-tary, with the approval of the President; and, under the like circumstances and conditions, the President of the United States is hereby authorized to substitute Treasury notes of equal amount for the whole or any part of any the loans for which he is now by law authorized to contract and issue bonds. And the Treasury notes so issued under the authority herein given shall be received-in payment for all debts due to the United States when offered, and in like manner shall be given in payment for any sum due from the United States when payment in that mode is requested by the person to whom payment is to be made, or for their par value in coin. And the faith of the United States is hereby pledged for the due payment of the interest and the redemption of the principal of the stock or Treasury notes which may be issued under the authority of this act; and the sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of preparing the certificates of stock or Treasury notes hein authorized, to be done in the usual mode and under the restrictions as to the employ-ment and payment of officers contained in the laws authorizing former loans and issues of Treasury notes; and it shall be at the option of holders of the Treasury notes hereby authorized by this act to exchange the same for the stock herein authorized at par, or for bonds, in lieu of which said Treasury notes were issued: Provided, that no certifi-cate shall be exchanged for Treasury notes or bonds in sums less than five hundred dollars: And provided further, That the authority to issue the said Treasury notes or give the same in payment for debts due from the United States shall be limited to the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two; and that the same may be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States, at any time within two years after the passage of this act; and that said notes shall cease to bear interest after they shall have been called in by the Secretary of the Treasury under the provisions of this

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first day of April, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law sixty-one, in heu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned, and on such as may now be exempt from duty, there shall be levied, collected, and paid on the goods, wares and merchandize herein enumerated and provided for, imported from foreign countries, the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say:
